How Can I Research in Maine Marriages, 1892-1996?

Information listed in this index may provide you with enough information to order a copy of a marriage. If possible, be sure to obtain a copy of the original marriage record, as it will likely provide additional information pertinent to your research. Requests for copies of marriage records from 1892-1922 should be sent to State Archives via e-mail. Marriage records dating after 1922 can be obtained from the Maine Department of Human Services, Office of Data Research and Vital Statistics by calling 207-287-3181 or mailing request to State House Station, Augusta, ME 04333. For more information about these records or to learn how to use the State Archives please visit the Maine State Archives website.

Use information found in marriage records to lead you to other records. For instance, if the ages of the groom are listed in the record, you can calculate an approximate date of birth, which will then tell you when to begin looking for birth records of these individuals. Try to match the dates on marriage licenses to newspaper announcements of weddings that can fill in extra details. Also, see if there are city directories, church records or other records of the individual that you have been able to pinpoint being in a certain place at a certain time.
