Destination Lecturer

Professor Robert Aalberts (Henderson, NV)

Robert Aalberts was a professor of business law at The Pennsylvania State University until his recent retirement. Professor Aalberts began his academic career as a geography instructor at the University of New Orleans, teaching economic, political and world regional geography. Although geography is his first love, he began attending law school while still teaching at UNO and subsequently turned his academic and career focus to the study of property rights, oil and gas law and comparative world legal systems. Prior to re-entering academics, he was a lawyer for the Gulf Oil Company. In his academic career, Professor Aalberts has received many college, university, and state-wide awards for teaching excellence as well as recognition for his research. He has also taught for extended periods in universities in Austria, China, Italy and Ireland. In his presentations, Professor Aalberts seeks to combine his broad academic interests and background in geography, history, law, business and economics to impart to passengers a more holistic understanding of the Crystal Symphony's remarkable destinations.

Special Interest Lecturer: World Affairs*Tom Faranda (Port Oxford, OR)

Tom has worked around the world and has clients in China, Japan, India, Malaysia, Mexico, UK, Germany, Australia and beyond. He has owned hotels in Costa Rica and the US, a pepper gas business in South Africa, an ATM firm, a global software firm, a mobile home venture in South Africa and a global consulting firm focused on business growth and profit and other ventures. Tom Faranda's global trends have been on target for over 25 years. He forecasted the rise and fall of Japan, the rise and fall of the Euro, and the rise of China as a world power as well as many other trends. Tom brings global events and affairs into perspective and provides a view into the future of our world.

Special Interest Lecturer: Broadway Producer*Kevin McCollum (New York, NY)

Kevin McCollum is one of the most prolific and successful Broadway producers with a career spanning 25 years in the theatre industry. Kevin has received the Tony Award for Best Musical for In the Heights (2008), Avenue Q (2004), and Rent (1996), which also won the Pulitzer Prize. He is currently represented on Broadway with the Olivier Award-winning The Play That Goes Wrong. He produced Something Rotten! (Broadway, National Tour), Hand to God (Broadway, West End), Motown: The Musical (Broadway, West End, and National Tour), The Drowsy Chaperone (2006), which won five Tony Awards, Baz Luhrmann's production of Puccini's La Boheme (2002), [title of show] (2008), the touring and Broadway productions of Irving Berlin's White Christmas, the off Broadway hit De La Guarda, the recent hit revival of West Side Story, and Bengal Tiger at the Baghdad Zoo. In 1995 Mr. McCollum co-founded the Producing Office, and has since created Alchemation, a theatrical and media producing company committed to new work. Mr. McCollum was trained at the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music, and earned his Master's degree in film producing from the Peter Stark Program at the University of Southern California. In 1995, he received the Robert Whitehead Award for Outstanding Commercial Theatre Producing.

Wellness

Crystal Cruises' exclusive Walk-on-Water program features The WALKVEST® Training System which revolutionizes walking simply by adding resistance (added weight) to your walk.

Nordic Walking

Crystal Cruises is the only cruise line to offer a Nordic Walking program to help you get more out of your limited exercise time on board. The use of lightweight poles for stability and balance will facilitate your fitness needs even if you have knee or hip issues. Two specially designed adjustable poles work the upper body while walking. Like cross country skiing, the poles are used by the arms to match each step the person takes. Our Fitness Staff will guide you to quickly be deck-walking for fun and fitness. You will be using feather weight aluminum poles provided by the market leader, LEKI®.

Golf Teaching Professional

Mike Smith (Carpinteria, CA)

Mike began his golf career in Freeport, Grand Bahama Island, at the Kings Inn Resort in the late 1960s, where he became the Head Golf Professional. He moved to Acapulco, Mexico in 1970 and opened the Famous Acapulco Princess Hotel, and was Director of Golf at the Acapulco Princess and Pierre Marques. Soon after, Mike was promoted to Director of Golf for Princess Hotels in the U.S., Bahamas, Mexico, Bermuda, and Barbados. In addition to setting up day to day golf operations, Mike started the 'Swingtime Golf School' programs. Mike also developed a trick shot show, and traveled the U.S., Europe, Asia and South America, giving hundreds of shows and exhibitions. On television, Mike appeared on The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson, That Regis Philbin Show, Jerry Lewis' telethons, and many others. In 1995, Mike opened International Golf Management Company, that manages corporate recognition events and customer programs for many Fortune 500 companies such as IBM, Qualcomm, Sprint, BMC Software, HP, Coldwell Banker, Century 21, and Wyndham Hotels, to mention only a few. Mike works regularly with Johnny Miller, Dave Stockton, Gary McCord, and other professional golfers at these corporate events. He has truly gone with the Global economy in the past few years, and consistently works Corporate golf programs, schools and clinics in Europe and Asia.
