Piraeus is the historic port city of Athens, Greece, and one of the largest seaports in Europe. Located about 12 kilometers southwest of central Athens, it has served as the maritime gateway to the capital since ancient times. Piraeus played a crucial role in classical Greece, particularly during the 5th century BCE when Themistocles fortified the port, transforming it into a naval stronghold. Today, it remains a bustling hub of commerce, culture, and transportation, serving both domestic and international ferry routes to the Greek islands and beyond. The city blends modern infrastructure with layers of history, from ancient shipyards to contemporary marinas and museums. Its lively neighborhoods, seafood tavernas, and proximity to Athens make it a vibrant destination in its own right. Piraeus continues to evolve, balancing its rich maritime legacy with its role as a dynamic economic and cultural center in the Mediterranean.

GYTHION, GREECE

Arrival: 8:00a / Last Tender: 4:30p

Tender Platform: Deck 3 Aft

Nestled along the southern coast of the Peloponnese, Gythion is a charming seaside town steeped in myth and history. Once the ancient port of Sparta, Gythion is said to be where Paris of Troy and Helen first set sail, beginning their legendary journey. Today, the town offers a relaxed, authentic Greek atmosphere with pastel-colored neoclassical buildings lining the waterfront, fishing boats bobbing in the harbor, and welcoming tavernas serving fresh seafood. Visitors can explore nearby sites such as the ancient theater, the islet of Cranae with its lighthouse and historical museum, or take a short drive to the striking Diros Caves—an underground wonder of stalactites and stalagmites navigated by boat. Whether you're strolling the promenade or sipping a coffee by the sea, Gythion invites you to slow down and savor the beauty of this timeless corner of Greece.

The largest of the Greek islands, Crete is a land where myth and history intertwine with natural splendor and warm hospitality. From its sun-kissed beaches to its rugged mountain landscapes, Crete offers a striking contrast of beauty at every turn. Ancient Minoan palaces whisper tales of Europe's earliest civilization, while Venetian harbors and Ottoman architecture reflect the island's rich and layered past. In Chania, one of Crete's most charming cities, cobbled alleyways lead to vibrant markets, elegant cafés, and a postcard-perfect waterfront crowned by a 16th-century lighthouse. Here, tradition is not a relic of the past but a way of life—expressed through music, dance, and the irresistible aroma of Cretan cuisine. Whether exploring the dramatic Samaria Gorge, sampling local olive oil and honey, or simply soaking in the golden light as it reflects off the Aegean Sea, Crete captures the imagination and soothes the soul. It is a place of stories, flavors, and unforgettable moments—each one inviting you to slow down and savor the spirit of the Mediterranean. As we set sail from this extraordinary island, we take with us the warmth, wonder, and timeless beauty that make Crete truly unforgettable.

Few places capture the imagination quite like Santorini, with its iconic, white-washed houses, blue-domed churches, and dramatic volcanic cliffs rising from the Aegean Sea. From the bustling town of Thira (Fira), the island's vibrant capital and your perfect point of departure, visitors can explore the many layers of this magical island. Thira offers breathtaking views over the caldera, charming cafes, boutique shops, and a lively atmosphere that blends traditional Greek charm with cosmopolitan flair. From here, you can venture out to the tranquil village of Oia, famous for its postcard sunsets, or discover ancient secrets at the Akrotiri archaeological site, often referred to as the "Pompeii of the Aegean." Take a boat tour to the nearby volcanic islets, soak in natural hot springs, or relax on the island's unique beaches—red, black, and white sands shaped by centuries of volcanic activity. Santorini's culinary scene is a delight, with tavernas serving fresh seafood and local specialties paired perfectly with Assyrtiko wine, grown in the island's volcanic soil. Whether wandering narrow cobblestone streets, shopping for handmade crafts, or simply watching the sun dip into the sea, Santorini leaves an unforgettable mark, a place that lingers in the heart long after you've gone.

Leonardo da Vinci. Benjamin Franklin. Albert Einstein. Steve Jobs. Jennifer Doudna. Ada Lovelace. Bill Gates. Elon Musk. They were all smart, but that's not what made them great. What set them apart was that they were creative, imaginative, thought out of the box or, as Jobs would say, knew how to think different. This talk will look at their secrets and what we can learn from them that's useful in our daily lives.

MILOS, NISOS MILOS, GREECE

Arrival: 8:00a / Last Tender: 4:30p

Tender Platform: Deck 3 Aft

Milos, a captivating gem in the Cyclades archipelago of Greece, is an island shaped by volcanic activity and steeped in ancient history. Renowned for its dramatic coastline, Milos boasts over 70 beaches, each unique in color and character—from the moonlike landscape of Sarakiniko to the red cliffs of Firiplaka and the calm turquoise waters of Tsigrado. This island is where the famous Venus de Milo was discovered, a masterpiece that now resides in the Louvre, hinting at the island's rich archaeological legacy. In the charming village of Plaka, whitewashed houses and narrow alleyways lead to breathtaking sunset views rivaling those of Santorini. Nearby, the ancient Roman theatre and catacombs offer a fascinating glimpse into Milos' storied past. Unlike some of its more tourist-heavy neighbors, Milos retains an authentic Greek island atmosphere. Traditional fishing villages like Klima, with its brightly painted "symata" (boat houses), provide a picture-perfect setting and a window into island life. The local cuisine, featuring fresh seafood, handmade cheeses, and signature dishes like pitarakia (cheese pies), completes the experience. Milos offers a blend of natural beauty, cultural depth, and serene charm.

Kuşadası, a lively resort town on Turkey's Aegean coast, is a destination that offers something for everyone. With its sun-soaked beaches, vibrant nightlife, and rich cultural heritage, it's no surprise Kuşadası has become a favorite stop for travelers and cruise ships alike. The town is the perfect base for exploring the ancient ruins of Ephesus—one of the most magnificent archaeological sites in the world. Stroll along the palm-lined promenade, shop for local crafts in the bustling bazaars, or unwind with fresh seafood by the marina. Don't miss Pigeon Island, home to a historic Byzantine castle and panoramic sea views. Whether you're a history buff, beach lover, or foodie, Kuşadası's blend of tradition and modern charm makes it a must-visit on any Aegean adventure.

SEABOURN SIGNATURE EVENT:

AN EXCLUSIVE EVENING AT EPHEBUS

When the ancient site of Ephesus closes to visitors for the day, Seabourn guests are treated to the extraordinary experience of classical music among the ruins. A magical evening follows as you listen to a chamber orchestra's repertoire of classical music at the Odeon Amphitheatre, an intimate venue nestled within the ancient city. After an early dinner on board the ship, depart from the pier for a 30-minute coach ride. Each guest will receive a complimentary photo to commemorate the evening. Please note: The terrain at Ephesus is uneven, and the steps leading to the Odeon Amphitheatre are worn and without handrails. We strongly recommend wearing comfortable walking shoes. This experience is not advisable for guests using a wheelchair. For planning purposes, please sign up for this event by 12:00 noon in the Seabourn Square on Deck 7, or by dialing 9 to speak with our Guest Services team.

ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT:

LET'S DANCE PARTY!

INTRODUCING

CAPTAIN ANDREW PEDDER

Captain Pedder was born in Yorkshire, England and first went to sea as a 17-year-old Officer Cadet in the British Merchant Navy, where he gained ten years sea time on cargo ships sailing worldwide. Work on various cruise ships followed, including serving on Cunard Line's Queen Elizabeth 2 and Cunard Princess, before going ashore to become a Maritime Pilot on the river Humber, England. This profession saw him guiding ships from the North Sea to berth in various ports on the river. It was then back to sea, joining Seabourn in 2009 as Master of Seabourn Legend and Seabourn Quest. Highlights include sailing Seabourn Legend under Tower Bridge in London and being on the ship's final voyage in 2015. In addition, he worked as an instructor in the company's simulator training facility and completed a three-year assignment as Fleet Captain, sailing on some 40 ships in the corporation to train and oversee bridge operations. Whether at sea or at home, he enjoys playing classical and jazz guitar. And when at home he enjoys swimming, cycling, and running (London Triathlon 2019).

A SEABOURN CONVERSATION WITH WALTER ISAACSON

Benjamin Franklin's Lessons For America's 250th Birthday

Benjamin Franklin is the Founding Father who winks at us. He was America's best scientist, inventor, diplomat, writer, and business strategist, and he was also one of its most practical political thinkers. This talk will cover the full of Franklin's amazing life, from his days as a runaway printer to his triumphs as a statesman, scientist, and Founding Father. We will focus on how Franklin along with Jefferson and Adams crafted the greatest sentence ever written "We hold these truths to be self-evident..." What does that sentence mean for America today?

Rhodes, the largest of Greece's Dodecanese islands, is a sun-drenched jewel in the southeastern Aegean Sea, celebrated for its rich tapestry of history, culture, and natural beauty. Known as the Island of the Knights, Rhodes was once home to the ancient Colossus—one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World—and later became a stronghold for the Knights Hospitaller during the Crusades. The island's capital, Rhodes Town, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, enclosed by imposing medieval walls and cobbled streets that transport visitors back in time. Its Old Town is one of the best-preserved medieval settlements in Europe, blending Gothic architecture with vibrant Greek charm. Beyond its historical allure, Rhodes offers pristine beaches, turquoise waters, and picturesque villages like Lindos, where whitewashed homes cling to steep hillsides beneath an ancient acropolis. With a Mediterranean climate that guarantees long summers and mild winters, Rhodes is a year-round destination. Visitors can explore ancient ruins, hike forested mountains, enjoy traditional cuisine, or relax along the island's stunning coastline. Whether you're a history enthusiast, a beach lover, or an adventurer, Rhodes offers a diverse and captivating experience that bridges the ancient and modern worlds. It's a place where myth meets history, and every stone tells a story.

INTRODUCING

Captain Pedder was born in Yorkshire, England and first went to sea as a 17-year-old Officer Cadet in the British Merchant Navy, where he gained ten years sea time on cargo ships sailing worldwide. Work on various cruise ships followed, including serving on Cunard Line's Queen Elizabeth 2 and Cunard Princess, before going ashore to become a Maritime Pilot on the river Humber, England. This profession saw him guiding ships from the North Sea to berth in various ports on the river. It was then back to sea, joining Seabourn in 2009 as Master of Seabourn Legend and Seabourn Quest. Highlights include sailing Seabourn Legend under Tower Bridge in London and being on the ship's final voyage in 2015. In addition, he worked as an instructor in the company's simulator training facility and completed a three-year assignment as Fleet Captain, sailing on some 40 ships in the corporation to train and oversee bridge operations. Whether at sea or at home, he enjoys playing classical and jazz guitar. And when at home he enjoys swimming, cycling, and running (London Triathlon 2019).

Spetses is a charming Greek island located in the Saronic Gulf, known for its rich maritime history, elegant architecture, and vibrant cultural scene. Unlike many Greek islands, Spetses is car-free in its main town, making it a peaceful retreat where visitors can explore by foot, bicycle, or horse-drawn carriage. The island played a significant role in the Greek War of Independence, with national heroine Laskarina Boukoulina leading naval forces from Spetses—her legacy is honored at a local museum in her former home. The island's capital, features stately neoclassical mansions, cobbled streets, and the picturesque Dapia harbor, lined with cafes and boutiques. Spetses is popular for both weekend getaways from Athens and longer stays, offering beaches like Agia Marina and Kaiki, crystal-clear waters, and scenic hiking trails through pine forests. Each September, the island hosts the "Armata" festival, commemorating a historic naval battle with reenactments and fireworks. Blending history, natural beauty, and cosmopolitan flair, Spetses is a unique destination with timeless Greek charm.

PIRAEUS, GREECE

Gangway: Deck 4 Forward (Subject to Change)

Piraeus is the historic port city of Athens, Greece, and one of the largest seaports in Europe. Located about 12 kilometers southwest of central Athens, it has served as the maritime gateway to the capital since ancient times. Piraeus played a crucial role in classical Greece, particularly during the 5th century BCE when Themistocles fortified the port, transforming it into a naval stronghold. Today, it remains a bustling hub of commerce, culture, and transportation, serving both domestic and international ferry routes to the Greek islands and beyond. The city blends modern infrastructure with layers of history, from ancient shipyards to contemporary marinas and museums. Its lively neighborhoods, seafood tavernas, and proximity to Athens make it a vibrant destination in its own right. Piraeus continues to evolve, balancing its rich maritime legacy with its role as a dynamic economic and cultural center in the Mediterranean.

INTRODUCING

CAPTAIN ANDREW PEDDER

Captain Pedder was born in Yorkshire, England and first went to sea as a 17-year-old Officer Cadet in the British Merchant Navy, where he gained ten years sea time on cargo ships sailing worldwide. Work on various cruise ships followed, including serving on Cunard Line's Queen Elizabeth 2 and Cunard Princess, before going ashore to become a Maritime Pilot on the river Humber, England. This profession saw him guiding ships from the North Sea to berth in various ports on the river. It was then back to sea, joining Seabourn in 2009 as Master of Seabourn Legend and Seabourn Quest. Highlights include sailing Seabourn Legend under Tower Bridge in London and being on the ship's final voyage in 2015. In addition, he worked as an instructor in the company's simulator training facility and completed a three-year assignment as Fleet Captain, sailing on some 40 ships in the corporation to train and oversee bridge operations. Whether at sea or at home, he enjoys playing classical and jazz guitar. And when at home he enjoys swimming, cycling, and running (London Triathlon 2019).

Hvar, a sun-drenched jewel in the Adriatic Sea, is one of Croatia's most enchanting islands. Known for its crystal-clear waters, lavender fields, and vibrant nightlife, Hvar blends natural beauty with rich history. The island's main town, also called Hvar, features a picturesque harbor lined with elegant Venetian architecture and bustling cafés. Above it all rises a 16th-century fortress offering panoramic views of the terracotta rooftops and nearby Pakleni Islands. By day, visitors explore secluded coves, medieval churches, and sunbathe on pristine beaches. As evening falls, the island comes alive with music, fine dining, and stylish beach bars. Hvar's unique charm lies in its balance between luxury and authenticity—where ancient stone streets meet modern Mediterranean glamour. Whether you're a history enthusiast, a nature lover, or a nightlife seeker, Hvar offers an unforgettable experience that captures the heart of Dalmatia. It's no wonder it's often called the "Queen of the Croatian Dalmatian islands."
